

PROGRESSED SUN IN ASPECT TO SATURN

When reading a chart, it is extremely important to consider any major progression involving Saturn or the Sun. The effects of these aspects — harmonious or inharmonious — tend to be permanent. Aspects between the two not only tend to be permanent but, for better or worse, they usually manifest in the most concrete or tangible way. All aspects between Saturn and the Sun indicate karmic conditions that are being picked up from a past life.

One ancient astrological practice is to calculate all progressed aspects to and from Saturn and to and from the Sun. This enables you to observe what happens when these key karmic aspects fire and it gives you a clearer idea of what is manifesting in a person's soul on a karmic level. With this knowledge, you can discern if the karmic forces from a person's past lives are more positive or more constrictive. This esoteric process is based on the fact that Saturn is the symbolic indicator or gauge of past life karma and that the Sun is the actual barometer of one's level or horizon of self-awareness, and thus the indicator of one's spiritual evolution.

The value of determining the degree of karmic positivity or negativity in Saturn and the Sun is to gain guidance about where and what you should be working on to balance out that karma, so as not to carry it over into your next incarnation. If there are no natal aspects between Saturn and the Sun and no major progressed aspects between the two in this incarnation, it means there will not be any heavy karmic problems in this lifetime. However, (please read the following statement carefully) there can be some very destructive problems that produce significant losses in your life. They simply are not karmically related, which means they will have little influence on your spiritual evolution or on your next incarnation.

PROGRESSED SUN HARMONIOUS TO SATURN

Harmonious aspects between the progressed Sun and Saturn produce a dignified state of mind. They bring honors, success, and fame. Advancement tends to come through authoritarian figures, older or influential people, and the house areas ruled by Saturn in the natal chart. Positive Sun-Saturn progressions make one highly self-disciplined. Thus benefits also come from sheer hard work.

This is an excellent cycle for buying and selling real estate or purchasing property for long-term investment. The progressed Sun's influence lasts about one year on either side of the partile. The bull's eye is about eight months — four months before partile and four months after. Remember that Saturn tends to fire late, i.e. after partile. If it fires before partile, which it does many times, the full meaning of the aspect is not usually seen or understood until much later.

PROGRESSED SUN INHARMONIOUS TO SATURN

Inharmonious aspects between Saturn and the progressed Sun tend to produce losses that challenge your health and social status. Illness is indicated if the aspect is out of the sixth house or involves the ruler of the sixth. The key thing to remember is there will be obstacles and delays involved in everything you do. Opposition, enmity, and public disfavor often occur. The mind tends to be unsympathetic, pessimistic, constrictive, and sad or depressed. The personality becomes cold and indifferent, which can produce problems in almost every area of your life. There is a tendency to disregard the feelings and needs of others, making conditions even worse.

These aspects often symbolize the loss of someone dear to you. The house ruled by Saturn and even more so, the house ruled by the Sun offer major clues about whom the person is likely to be. This is an extremely negative cycle for trying to expand or establish a business. It is a very difficult and potentially dangerous time for dealing with bosses, supervisors, and people in positions of power.

This is not a good time for making changes. If changes come, they are not usually seen as positive. If you are forced to make a decision under a Sun-Saturn progression, assume it will be permanent and you will live with it for the rest of your life. Take the long view. Ask yourself if you can live with the condition or change for a decade or more. If you do need to make a major decision, try to do what will symbolically cause you to feel more Juptitarian and free.

PROGRESSED SUN PARALLEL SATURN

This progression is similar to the conjunction, which should be studied, but it lasts much longer. The intensity of the aspect will be active on and off for one to three years. It hinders vitality, enthusiasm, and health. It also brings severe trials. It is considered negative or unfortunate, and care should be taken so it is not allowed to get out of hand. Watch your health, particularly your heart. Things tend to go wrong in multiple areas of your life. Loss, separation, and disappointment manifest. Do not get into power struggles with bosses or people in positions of authority.

PROGRESSED SUN CONJUNCT SATURN

This is a critical and unfavorable cycle in your life. Things tend to go very wrong. There are often major losses and difficulties experienced in the house ruled by the Sun. You feel isolated, depressed, and pessimistic. The mind takes on a negative attitude and you become suspicious of everyone, or at least that will be the way people interpret your attitude and actions. This conjunction always brings a much heavier workload and added responsibilities. If these are handled effectively and harmoniously, there is generally a major promotion about two years later when the progressed Sun moves out of orb. The houses ruled by Saturn and the Sun must be guarded. On a mundane level, this aspect causes you to feel cold all the time. Other physical manifestations include joint pain, rheumatism, and circulation problems. It is also easy to catch colds. On the positive side, this aspect will cause you to become more industrious and persevering.

PROGRESSED SUN SEXTILE SATURN

Like most sextiles, this progression is positive and brings benefits. It causes your mind to become steady and develop strong powers of concentration. Like the conjunction, you pick up added responsibilities, but they will be enjoyable and you will find them very meaningful. This is a cycle in which older people come into your life and are very helpful in assisting you to mature. Your reputation will improve both personally and professionally during this time. It is quite likely you will be recognized or honored for some reason. This aspect is a door of opportunity that opens right in front of you. Be ready to step through it consciously when it does. Success is achieved when preparation meets opportunity.

PROGRESSED SUN SQUARE SATURN

This is a very difficult cycle — an unfortunate period that tends to bring misery and stressful experiences. It symbolizes separation and the possibility of death if aspects in the natal chart concur. Someone close to you often pulls away because of a conflict or misunderstanding. The mind becomes pessimistic, depressed, and discordant. It is easy to feel isolated and alone. Be very careful. Do not get into disagreements. Do not offend anyone. If you do, legal problems and other serious conflicts can arise. Try to avoid making changes. Guard the house where the natal Sun is found and closely watch the house the Sun rules. Problems will manifest in these areas. Expect disappointment. This is not an easy time to expand the parameters of your life. It is a cycle that requires hard work without any expectation of reward, though the rewards may come later.

PROGRESSED SUN TRINE SATURN

This is an excellent cycle that brings tangible benefits into the areas of your life ruled by Saturn and the Sun. The events that manifest under this aspect offer a firm foundation on which you can build your spiritual dream. This should be one of the best periods in your life for career advancement. It often indicates a promotion that is permanent. Added responsibilities will be given to you or thrust upon you at this time. This will most likely make you happy, bring greater success, and increase your desire for more power and responsibility. Your reputation should also improve, bringing honors and recognition.

An older or more mature soul will enter your life at this time, and their influence should be very positive. If the natal chart concurs, this is an excellent time to buy and sell real estate or deal with government agents. However, all depends on the natal aspects of these two planets and your willingness to work for the sake of work rather than for rewards and recognition.

PROGRESSED SUN OPPOSITION SATURN

This can be a very difficult time in your life. There will be strong opposition to you — your ideas, your authority, your professional position, and the elements of your life symbolized by the houses ruled by Saturn and the Sun. If either planet is natively afflicted, this aspect often symbolizes disappointment, loss, separation, and sorrow. It is a cycle that requires great strength and detachment because discouragement, depression, and despair will challenge the mind.

The effects of this progression depend to a great degree on your attitude and your natal chart. Guard your assets and be careful with financial dealings or great loss can occur. Check to see if there is a lunar progression that manifests during this aspect. If there is and it intensifies the opposition, this can be an unforgettably trying period.

PROGRESSED SUN INCONJUNCT SATURN

This aspect indicates a karmic condition, generally one that is re-occurring from a past life. Pay close attention to the houses ruled by Saturn and the Sun. They offer clues about where the problem is and how to soften or correct the karmic condition. Like many inconjuncts, this one can manifest as a strong guilt complex that causes the mind to worry and become pessimistic. Guilt makes you feel badly about yourself and you become insecure. This generates negative emotions that are often projected onto other people, regardless of how others may feel about you. There is a tendency to overcompensate for this guilt by pouring yourself into your work or retreating into your own inner world. If you are not careful, this can lead to psychosomatic problems.

Saturn and the Sun always symbolize people in positions of authority. Thus they often manifest in one's professional life. Difficulties can arise under this aspect with everyone, especially your boss. People will have a hard time dealing with you, and you will have a hard time dealing with them. If you like or need your job, this is a time to bend and give ground.

There are two Saturn attitudes or dynamics that can create problems in your work life. The first is you pay way too much attention to detail, most likely because you want to be sure you are doing the work correctly, but possibly because of insecurity. The problem with this is you never seem to get the job done on time, so the boss is never pleased and you end up feeling resentful. The second scenario is you are focused on quality control or your concept of quality control, but your boss is focused on getting the work completed on time. Everyone is unhappy and there is potential for conflict.

PROGRESSED SUN IN ASPECT TO URANUS

PROGRESSED SUN PARALLEL URANUS

This progression is similar to the conjunction. The primary difference is it can last for several years, during which time it will manifest intermittently when other progressions or heavy transits re-activate it.

PROGRESSED SUN CONJUNCT URANUS

If both planets are natively well aspected, this progression symbolizes a significant period in your life marked by positive, though possibly extreme, changes in perception and self-awareness. This conjunction symbolizes change of the most extraordinary kind, which can be directly traced to changes in your fundamental states of consciousness. External changes will also manifest unexpectedly. The mind will be creative, innovative, and imaginative. You will come into contact with strange or unusual people who will expose you to new and eccentric ideas that affect you quite intensely. You will develop a deeper interest in mind expansion and esoteric studies.

You break old relationships and attachments and rapidly form new ones that people may consider quite bizarre. Some mystics would say the new and unexpected experiences that arise are directed toward awakening higher states of consciousness within you. This aspect stimulates an exploration of your inner and outer worlds. Events that manifest will change your life significantly. Expect the unexpected, but try to refrain from extreme changes and behavior.

PROGRESSED SUN SEXTILE URANUS

This aspect brings swift gains and benefits. Dreams, goals, and ambitions are realized. It is an excellent time for long distance travel if the natal planets are well aspected. Your mind will expand into new interests — including science, technology, and esoteric study. You will be inventive and have unusual ideas. You will take on a new dynamic and magnetic personality, which will draw many new friends and acquaintances into your personal and professional life. This is a very good time to join organizations.

PROGRESSED SUN SQUARE URANUS

This is one of the two most difficult Uranian aspects a person can have, especially if the planets are afflicted in the natal chart. (The other aspect being Mars squared Uranus.) Everything goes amiss during this cycle. Disruptive, unexpected, and inauspicious events and circumstances suddenly arise. They test you and challenge you to use the full powers of your mind and soul. Beware of electricity, x-rays, governments, and people in positions of power. If at all possible, try not to make changes. Changes you do make in your personal or professional life at this time will only make matters worse. However, the problem is you will most likely be forced to make changes.

Serious difficulties that cause you significant worry can arise during this progression. Guard your health and reputation. If you are not careful, shame or dishonor can manifest. It would be wise to postpone matters of importance and avoid travel, especially by plane, because this is a particularly dangerous time to fly. Obviously this is not always realistic, so be careful, go slowly, and be ever mindful of unexpected dangers. Like most aspects involving Uranus, what you do not expect to happen will usually occur. This is why one way to soften a Uranus aspect is to expect the unexpected. This square tends to manifest more forcefully when there is a negative lunar progression manifesting at the same time.

PROGRESSED SUN TRINE URANUS

This aspect produces favorable circumstances that improve your life. Beneficial changes manifest suddenly and unexpectedly. You become inventive, productive, and innovative. Changes you make and changes that come into your life will prove to be very positive. Most of your experiences will be quite different or unusual. This is an excellent time to travel. Friends, acquaintances, and organizations will help you attain your goals. If the planets are well aspected in the natal chart, gain can come through speculation and investment, particularly through things related to the houses ruled by the Sun and Uranus. This is an excellent time to study astrology or any of the arcane sciences.

PROGRESSED SUN OPPOSITION URANUS

This is a dangerous progression that can unbalance your entire life. Everything seems to go wrong, and the changes that occur in your life are upsetting. You should avoid travel, especially by air. It is a period in which you experience loss and conflict.

There will be strong opposition to anything you are trying to accomplish. Avoid disagreements of any kind. Remain cool. Do not become rash or impulsive because it will produce loss.

Under this aspect, organizations tend to bring misfortune into your life. Avoid legal problems. Even if you are innocent or blameless, you are likely to lose. People are watching and waiting for you do something that will result in scandal or disgrace. It is unlikely you will pass through this aspect without distress or sorrow of some kind. However, from it you will gain greater understanding and wisdom.

PROGRESSED SUN INCONJUNCT URANUS

The inconjunct has a natural relationship to the sixth house, so it tends to affect one's health or job. This transit usually manifests as sudden and disruptive problems at work that are caused by actions you undertake without adequate information. You have difficulty holding to a line of thought or action. You become extreme and appear unstable. People will see you as egotistical because they feel you have a know-it-all attitude. This introduces resentment and disorder into your work life. Unpredictable events may arise involving machinery, electricity, computers, technology, or chemicals. Thus there is danger of fire or explosions. Health problem or difficulties can manifest if you do not observe moderation in all things.

PROGRESSED SUN IN ASPECT TO NEPTUNE

PROGRESSED SUN PARALLEL NEPTUNE

The progressed parallel of declination between the Sun and Neptune acts much like the conjunction, but it lasts much longer.

PROGRESSED SUN CONJUNCT NEPTUNE

The way you experience the force of this progression will depend to a large degree on the house and sign position of Neptune in the natal chart and any aspects it forms. If Neptune is prominent in the natal chart, you will feel its effects, for better or worse. Neptune can produce remarkable dreams and psychic intuition. It tends to make you feel either romantic or idealistic. To the poet, musician, artist, or mystic, this aspect can bring wonderful inspiration and immense creative power.

The forces involved in a Neptune aspect are not easily seen or felt by the average person, though its negative manifestations, such as illness, confusion, and deceit are often experienced. Be at ease, but keep one foot on the ground at all times. If Neptune or the Sun is afflicted in the natal chart, be very careful not to fall under the influence of drugs, alcohol, or negative theology. You also need to be careful you are not deceived, confused, or seriously confined.

PROGRESSED SUN SEXTILE NEPTUNE

If the natal aspects are positive, this will be an excellent time for rest and recreation. Music, art, and poetry will bring you joy and satisfaction. This can be a period in which you are "lucky," and you know it. You will be inspired and creative. You may feel the need to be near a lake or an ocean.

PROGRESSED SUN SQUARE NEPTUNE

This is a dangerous time. Accidents and illness can manifest. Beware of slipping, falling, and food poisoning. You need to be very careful of negative side effects from any kind of pharmaceuticals or medical treatment. Your dreams become distorted and confusing, which causes apprehension and worry. If the two planets are natively afflicted, you need to beware of deception or serious and insidious problems in the houses ruled or occupied by Neptune and the Sun.

This aspect gives rise to mental aberrations such as depression and neurosis. It can weaken the system by draining one's vitality, which can produce strange impairments of the body or mind. If Neptune is heavily afflicted in the natal chart and rules the 6th, 12th, 4th or 8th house (in that order), the body or mind is more susceptible to becoming devitalized. Beware of hypnosis or any similar type of treatment at this time.

PROGRESSED SUN TRINE NEPTUNE

If the natal chart is favorable, and only if the natal chart is favorable, this trine will bring a delightfully peaceful period into your life. Benefits and happiness flow from the house areas ruled by these planets and also from the houses they occupy. If you have a creative mind, this is an excellent period because you can release remarkable creativity. This trine brings mystical experiences, the attainment of esoteric wisdom, and an attunement to higher vibrations.

PROGRESSED SUN OPPOSITION NEPTUNE

This can be a difficult aspect. You need to guard yourself against deceit, self-deception, illusion, delusion, drugs, alcohol, and any type of psychological manipulation, such as hypnotism. This aspect indicates that your higher nature and your lower nature are coming into opposition with one another. Most people drown psychologically in the ocean of emotion released by this progression. It all depends on how much discipline you have over your everyday mind and how successfully you have controlled your subconscious impulses over the last twelve years. Mystically speaking, most people drown in the ocean of emotions because they cease striving for the higher nature within themselves.

PROGRESSED SUN INCONJUNCT NEPTUNE

Neptune is vague and elusive, and the inconjunct is symbolically linked to the sixth house. Thus this aspect indicates you may have a difficult time holding onto your job, usually because you are continuously quitting or being laid off. Money problems can arise regarding joint accounts or business funds. It can be a very stressful period, made worse because you do not seem to be able to put your finger on the problem. This stress can easily affect your health.

It is a dangerous time for drinking, medication, and drugs. Food poisoning or other complications can manifest. If health problems occur, they will be difficult to diagnose and you may spend quite some time in bed. Problems at work and at home arise because you are unable to hold to a single thought or because you have an overactive imagination. The primary emotional force of this aspect will cause you to experience a great deal of ambiguous guilt. Thus a feeling arises that you need to purify your soul.

PROGRESSED SUN IN ASPECT TO PLUTO

PROGRESSED SUN CONJUNCT OR PARALLEL PLUTO

This aspect signals a period in your life when leadership qualities will manifest or during which leadership qualities are required to handle the events that come into your life. These circumstances and events are related to the houses ruled by the Sun and Pluto. The subconscious mind releases intense energy during this progression. You seek to control, or gain control over, your life and those in your environment. You will exert a hidden sort of control or influence over people and situations that enter your life — or you will try to do so.

The positivity or negativity of this conjunction depends to a great deal on the natal position of Pluto and its aspects. There may be clandestine plans organized against you and passive confrontations can escalate. Be aware of this possibility and be skillful in handling these matters when they occur.

PROGRESSED SUN SEXTILE PLUTO

Excellent opportunities arise for you to work together with others in a cooperative way. Both sides will benefit. It would be wise during this cycle not to present yourself too forcefully as a leader and to refrain from pushing for any type of leadership role you consider yours. Any need you have to express power should be done subtly and skillfully. This will be important in all phases of your life — at home, at play, and at work.

PROGRESSED SUN SQUARE PLUTO

This period often brings power struggles and ego battles or, at the very least, the major bumping of heads. These conflicts will arise at work and in the house areas ruled and occupied by the Sun and Pluto. These battles will not be just between you and one other person. Whatever the situation appears to be, do not be so foolish as to think this is the case. Whether or not you are aware of it, the conflict is between you and a group. Be clear about this before you take any action. It is a cycle ripe for manipulation and frustration. Just be sure you are not the one who is being manipulative. It would be the better part of wisdom to compromise.

Coworkers may force you to take a stand. If you must, be skillful. Check your own ego-attitude and then reflect on what is wise and feasible. If you compromise, and do so gracefully, things will work out. However, conflicts arise if you try to force others to do what they do not want to do. Be careful that your Plutonian efforts do not backfire on you.

PROGRESSED SUN TRINE PLUTO

If you can help others fulfill their emotional needs, this can be a wonderful and fruitful period for you. It is a great time to solicit help from groups and certain types of organizations. Your mind is creative, which should help you do this successfully. If you demonstrate sincere gratitude and appreciation and are not too demanding, miracles can happen. Benefits will come from the house areas ruled by Pluto and the Sun. The intensity of Pluto and the Sun when they come together makes it easier for you to see who is passively resisting the drive of your ego. Recognize and respect what their hesitation, disappointment, or concern might be, and do your best to correct it. In so doing, you improve the situation and they will help you to complete your tasks and realize your dreams.

PROGRESSED SUN OPPOSITION PLUTO

Like most hard aspects between Pluto and the Sun, the progressed opposition is a period when there will be ego conflicts. You need to decide whether gratifying your ego is more important than accomplishing what you want and need to accomplish in your life. Pluto always symbolizes groups of people. You and groups around you tend to come into conflict because of a negative attitude that is best expressed as "Take it or leave it." It would be wisdom to let go of this egocentric attitude — to give in or compromise. But this must be done gracefully or your idea of compromise will create more problems than it resolves.

In other words, you need to resist the impulse to control others by offering passive resistance. At the same time, you need to be aware that the people around you are probably trying to control you and their situation in the same way. Find a wise balance between these two extremes. Remember that the basic problem during this aspect is ego and a drive to exert ego power. Give the other person the seat of glory. Then you can retain your seat of power.

PROGRESSED SUN INCONJUNCT PLUTO

This aspect tends to release any stress that has built up between the unconscious, symbolized by Pluto, and one's everyday horizon of awareness, symbolized by the Sun. This stress represents a karmic problem that has its genesis in past life experiences. If it manifests as a health problem, it will not be a mental illness. Be careful of serious accidents at work. This is a time when an entire group of people can become injured on the job. Be careful you are not one of them. Be extra cautious and follow safety procedures at all times.

People in your work environment may be asked to work on something confidential or secret. Be very sure you do not talk about it. The walls will have ears, and so will the computers, phones, and fax machines. Financial problems can arise, or you may just worry about money. Be careful of any dealings, knowingly or unknowingly, with criminals or undercover agents. Be mindful that you do not take on or get caught up in a group guilt complex.

PROGRESSED SUN IN ASPECT TO THE NATAL SUN

PROGRESSED SUN PARALLEL THE NATAL SUN

The Sun never retrogrades, so it cannot form a conjunction to itself. However, it can form a parallel of declination to itself. The parallel increases your vitality and energizes the house the Sun is in and the house it rules. Whether or not this cycle is favorable will depend to a great degree on the natal aspects of the Sun. If the Sun is natively well aspected, this progression will strengthen it and any other progressions or transits occurring at the same time. You will receive recognition for your work and things you have accomplished. If the natal Sun is afflicted, the parallel will cause the natal aspects to manifest, for better or worse.

The parallel generally improves your health and the affairs of the house ruled by Leo. Benefits that arise will come to and from this house. There is ample vitality and power to deal with anything that may go amiss in your life (from other progressions or transits). If the natal Sun is positive, friends, acquaintances, and people in positions of power and authority will be sources of good fortune.

PROGRESSED SUN SEMI-SEXTILE THE NATAL SUN

This progression occurs when a person is approximately thirty years of age. It functions much like the sextile, but it is not as forceful and the energy generally manifests internally or mentally rather than externally.

PROGRESSED SUN SEMI-SQUARE THE NATAL SUN

This aspect manifests when a person is approximately forty-five years old. It is similar to the square but not as negative or forceful. However, if the natal Sun is afflicted, you need to be careful of this aspect. It can make the personality rigid, hard, difficult, and dictatorial — all of which can have a negative affect on one's life that is permanent.

PROGRESSED SUN SEXTILE THE NATAL SUN

This aspect occurs around the age of sixty. It brings tangible opportunity and benefits as indicated by the natal Sun. It is an excellent time for beginning new projects and ventures. It is also a good time for taking on new responsibilities. Mystically, it is the key period for reflecting on and evaluating one's life and to begin to steer the ship of consciousness toward those things that are more eternal.

PROGRESSED SUN SQUARE THE NATAL SUN

This potentially difficult progression activates around the age of ninety. For those who physically live this long, it weakens the vitality and disrupts the general health. Danger and loss come from the house the Sun rules natively and the house the progressed Sun is in. Loss and sorrow often come through people in authority over one's life, which often includes doctors. Much depends on the nature of the natal Sun and how skillfully one has lived.

PROGRESSED SUN TRINE THE NATAL SUN

Because it will not occur until the age of 120, the progressed Sun trine the natal Sun does not normally manifest in human lives at the present time.

PROGRESSED SUN INCONJUNCT THE NATAL SUN

Because it will not form until the age of 150, the progressed Sun will not inconjunct the natal Sun in a human life at the present time.

PROGRESSED SUN OPPOSITION THE NATAL SUN

Because it would not occur until the age of 180, the progressed Sun cannot form an opposition to the natal Sun in a human life at the present time.
