

PROGRESSED VENUS IN ASPECT TO JUPITER

PROGRESSED VENUS PARALLEL JUPITER

The general conditions in your life will improve when Venus and Jupiter combine favorably. This is especially evident in social affairs and financial matters. Like most progressed parallels, this one lasts for quite some time, and it can be difficult to know what will make it activate. It tends to be most active when triggered by another progressed aspect, often a lunar progression that is harmonious to the parallel.

PROGRESSED VENUS CONJUNCT JUPITER

The conjunction of progressed Venus to the natal Jupiter symbolizes a peaceful cycle that brings happiness and success into your life. There will be benefits that come from the houses ruled by the two planets. It will also improve your social situation and finances, especially when activated by a lunar progression. If there are problems, they usually come from over-indulgence or carelessness.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE JUPITER

This is usually a pleasant period. Working with relatives or dealing with the general public will be enjoyable and will bring opportunities for benefits. Your social interactions will be more satisfying and your finances will improve. It is an excellent time for traveling. Important people often come into your life, and positive and powerful, long-lasting relationships are developed.

PROGRESSED VENUS SQUARE JUPITER

This cycle produces loss and disappointment when traveling and when dealing with professionals, especially lawyers and religious leaders. The aspect can affect your social standing, and problems often arise in your home. It is an unfavorable time for starting a business venture and forming new friendships. Conflicts with your boss or legal troubles can manifest if you are not careful. They can create financial difficulties. Your ideals or religious attitudes can cause a relationship to go through a separation, though it is usually temporary. Carelessness and over-indulgence are the main cause of problems when Jupiter and Venus are afflicted. Be careful of blood poisoning.

PROGRESSED VENUS TRINE JUPITER

Everything should go smoothly during this period. Benefits and financial gains will often manifest, usually out of the houses ruled by the two planets. Travels will be pleasurable, bringing greater happiness and financial benefits. Gentler thought patterns manifest that make you feel more satisfied with your life, and thus you become more compassionate. This, in turn, allows you to relax, to meditate more deeply, and to experience more joy in your life.

PROGRESSED VENUS OPPOSITION JUPITER

This is a difficult period. It can bring financial loss and unpleasant or unfavorable social conditions. It is an adverse cycle for travel and dealings with legal and religious matters. Pay close attention to the houses ruled by Venus and Jupiter. There can be serious monetary deficiencies that can lead to social humiliation or a separation between you and a romantic or professional partner. If you are not careful, legal problems will ensue. This aspect indicates loss and troubles that arise from dealings with proud or religious people. Beware of self-indulgence and vanity.

PROGRESSED VENUS INCONJUNCT JUPITER

This aspect symbolizes that over-indulgence is likely to manifest. There is an inner conflict — a struggle between your romantic needs and your religious ideals or philosophy. This struggle creates stress, frustration, and sometimes guilt, which can cause your physical body to malfunction. Pay extra attention to the liver, kidneys, and cardiovascular system.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN ASPECT TO SATURN

PROGRESSED VENUS PARALLEL SATURN

This is a negative aspect that is active for several years. It produces financial problems and the loss of possessions. It makes you cold or, at the very least, it hinders your ability to be warm and open. Thus it brings romantic disappointments and sadness. There will be loss of honor if you are not very careful. Saturn over Venus causes you to become miserly and stingy, especially regarding money and romantic expression. Guard your bones and circulation.

PROGRESSED VENUS CONJUNCT SATURN

Saturn over Venus is one of the key symbols indicating the loss of someone or something dear to you through separation, death, or other causes. Like the parallel, this is a negative aspect indicating the loss of wealth, possessions, love, or honor. You become cold and non-responsive, which causes disappointments and sorrow. It produces great stress because you feel lonely, isolated, and separate from others. Most of the emotional problems that arise will be caused by an over-sensitivity on your part. This is a very bad time for starting a financial project or a new relationship. It is a period when romantic events sadden you. People will lean on you, making you feel burdened.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE SATURN

This aspect improves your life on many levels, specifically your finances, romantic relationships, and the houses ruled by Venus. There will be advancement on the job and a noticeable improvement in your domestic life. Relationships formed at this time are fruitful and stable.

PROGRESSED VENUS SQUARE SATURN

This is a very difficult cycle. There can be serious problems related to money, romance, and the houses ruled by Venus, which are likely to be the cause of loss and pain. Your social and domestic life will seem cold and unfulfilling. You will feel imposed upon, and there is a tendency for people to deceive you. Be careful whom you trust. Be especially cautious of people ruled by Saturn, such as friends, bosses, and older people. Be very careful of those who have the power to affect your finances. Health problems that arise will affect the heart, bones, and teeth, often because of too many sweets.

PROGRESSED VENUS TRINE SATURN

Romance and finances will be rewarding and satisfying at this time. Social satisfaction and pleasure will abound. Conditions, both internally and externally, permit lasting and meaningful relationships to be established. Current friendships will flourish and become a source of true happiness. Your health and vitality should improve. Your mind will be focused on your life's goals and the things in life ruled by Venus. This aspect brings strong spiritual vibrations. You express deeper devotion and experience profound insights into what makes life meaningful and valuable to you.

PROGRESSED VENUS OPPOSITION SATURN

This cycle brings loss, disappointments, difficulties in romantic and financial matters, and conflicts in the areas of your life ruled by Venus. It symbolizes bereavement, isolation, separation, or the loss of at least one person in your life. Scandal and legal accountability can manifest if you have not been prudent and discreet in the conduct of your life. This opposition indicates monetary problems and financial loss. Older or elderly people are often a source of added responsibility, difficulty, or sadness.

PROGRESSED VENUS INCONJUNCT SATURN

There is usually a heavy imbalance between work and social needs during this aspect, which could indicate either idleness or over-work. In other words, either your work life interferes with your love life or your love life interferes with your work life. Both tend to be unbalanced during this aspect. There may also be lack of self-confidence in these areas of your life. Health problems can arise because of emotional conflicts, some of which may be caused by deep guilt. This can cause further melancholy or depression.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN ASPECT TO URANUS

PROGRESSED VENUS PARALLEL URANUS

Like most parallels, this one will be within one degree of partile for at least two-years and possibly longer, and like all parallels it does not have a sharp and defined period of activation. What is certain is it will cause you to form relationships that will be unconventional, to say the least. You want to be as free and independent as possible, especially when it comes to romance and financial matters. Problems will arise from two sources — your motives and your actions. Your motives are erroneous and extreme, leading to actions that are radical, impulsive, and extreme.

PROGRESSED VENUS CONJUNCT URANUS

Astrologers say you should expect the unexpected during this aspect. This conjunction indicates a period when relationships start suddenly and end just as abruptly. There will also be sudden or unexpected losses and gains. You will be quite imaginative and idealistic during this period, which is good. However, your mind will also be susceptible to negative suggestion, so be careful of the circumstances in which you place yourself and the people with whom you spend time. Avoid violence on film and television, and stay away from emotionally negative people and situations. Be careful that you do not strain your heart during this aspect — physically, mentally, or emotionally.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE URANUS

This is an excellent time for being with friends, entertaining socially, and getting along with different kinds of people. There will be opportunities for financial gain. Positive events related to love and money will manifest in your life. You will probably be a little more impulsive than usual, and you may find yourself drawn toward unusual personalities. But during this aspect, you need to be cautious and discreet when dealing with these people because they may try to use you.

PROGRESSED VENUS SQUARE URANUS

This is a very bad time for making changes or starting ventures involving love or money. What often happens is a sudden change comes into your life unexpectedly. Be careful of changes that arise, guard the houses ruled by Venus, and be sure to keep them balanced. Under this aspect, you are strongly affected by the actions of other people, especially when it involves financial insufficiency and loss. Family problems, domestic difficulties, and issues revolving around love and romance produce ruptures and separations.

This aspect also manifests any latent psychosis or illness that exists within one's personality. Disrepute and disgrace occur under this square. Thus be careful of doing anything that could bring dishonor to you or a loved one. To say this is a time when you should avoid straining your heart physically or emotionally would be an understatement.

PROGRESSED VENUS TRINE URANUS

This is a cycle heralding great success — socially, financially, and in the house areas ruled by Venus. There will be new and profitable partnerships, both personally and professionally. Changes and travel will prove beneficial. Your love life will be powerful and dynamic, though somewhat hard to manage. It is a period when the mind is moved to study astronomy, astrology, electronics, and new technologies, such as computer science.

PROGRESSED VENUS OPPOSITION URANUS

This is a difficult aspect, particularly for women. It is obstructive to matters involving love and money. It is a bad time for making changes, especially if they are sudden or extreme, and it is not a good time for establishing new relationships. It is an unfavorable time for speculation and money matters in general. Your emotions are strong and negative. Thus your interactions with people and situations cause you pain and sorrow, which can lead to separation. Beware of legal problems that may follow. The houses ruled by Venus are the critical ones to watch. They are the areas where problems and loss will most likely manifest. Guard your health and be extra careful when dealing with radioactive materials, x-rays, electricity, and any kind of magnetic force fields.

PROGRESSED VENUS INCONJUNCT URANUS

This aspect produces problems that are caused by your need for incessant excitement because it interferes with your stability. People begin to see you as unreliable or unstable. Arbitrary or impulsive romantic involvements lead to difficulties and stress at home or in long-standing relationships. This can affect your health, usually as a nervous ailment. Be careful of obsession and of people who gain too much control over your life. If problems arise, they will probably be in the houses ruled by Venus.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN ASPECT TO NEPTUNE

PROGRESSED VENUS PARALLEL OR CONJUNCT NEPTUNE

The parallel and conjunction have the same basic effect, except the parallel is active for a much longer time. These are excellent aspects for the artist or spiritual seeker, as there is deep sensitivity and receptivity to subtle experiences. These aspects produce a personality that is filled with spiritual or platonic love. The problem is they can make you altruistic and selfless or unrealistic and impractical, especially when it comes to love and money. This can produce stress, guilt, and nervous problems.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE NEPTUNE

This sextile usually brings deep internal satisfaction. It produces experiences in your life that are meaningful to your higher mind. Use it to reflect on where you find yourself and evaluate what you seek. Mystically, this aspect is a period of profound insight and unfoldment during which meditative states can manifest into the subtler worlds for a short while. It also draws creative energy into your chosen field of activity.

PROGRESSED VENUS SQUARE NEPTUNE

You are extremely suggestible during this square, so it is critical you avoid any type of negative suggestion, regardless of whether it originates from people, movies, television, or anywhere else. Please hear this! It is critical. You also need to guard your finances and your love life, as both tend to be causes of major concern. Deceit, fraud, and self-deception can be a source of serious problems under any negative Neptune aspect, and when Venus is involved, it generally relates to romance or finances. Once negative Neptunian forces start activating, it is very difficult to get them to stop.

PROGRESSED VENUS TRINE NEPTUNE

This progression brings peace, quietude, and subtle satisfaction. Your artistic and creative energies will be strong, and your thoughts will be poetic. It is a great time for taking a vacation on or near the water, unless some other aspect indicates otherwise. Romance, business, and financial matters will be beneficial at this time. If you meditate or watch your dreams, you will note a series of subtle and meaningful spiritual states of consciousness flowing into your conscious mind, or you may have a significant experience at this time. This experience (or experiences) will have a profound and positive affect on your inner life.

PROGRESSED VENUS OPPOSITION NEPTUNE

Depending on your level of spiritual unfoldment, this opposition either symbolizes a disharmony between your higher and lower feeling states or between your higher and lower emotional states. Your sense of self and the houses ruled by these two planets will be at odds with one another. This is a period for balancing that disharmony and conflict and proceeding with your spiritual path. But be careful as you walk your path under this Neptune aspect, as you can easily become a victim of deceit, fraud, or self-deception.

PROGRESSED VENUS INCONJUNCT NEPTUNE

This progression is considered negative. It can cause your vitality and finances to be drained by clandestine romance or secret activities. These activities are usually related directly to an attempt to escape from what you feel to be the monotony of your life. Sometimes people use drugs as a form of escape, which can easily trigger health problems under this aspect. If you do not exercise wisdom and prudence, you will pick up added guilt as a result of your attitude and actions. This will only make things worse.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN ASPECT TO PLUTO

PROGRESSED VENUS PARALLEL OR CONJUNCT PLUTO

You will have intense emotional experiences during these aspects. They tend to manifest romantically, socially, and in the houses affected by Venus and Pluto. If you are artistic or creative, this can be a period of powerful inspiration. But it can also be a time when problems arise because of jealousy and attempted manipulation by you or someone else. There can also be serious problems related to sexual situations. Circumstances associated with joint finances, insurance companies, taxes, trusts, and bequeaths will be prevalent at this time.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE PLUTO

Intense subconscious energies arise and create a deep-seated desire for greater wealth and passion, which you tend to regard as true power under this aspect. Your mind is inspired and strongly directed toward artistic creativity. There is a deep, powerful, and passionate attraction toward everything you do, especially creative and financial undertakings. There are also strong desires for more social interaction.

PROGRESSED VENUS SQUARE PLUTO

Your life is under stress during this aspect — romantically, socially, and financially. You may feel you are being pushed or unduly influenced in these areas. The houses ruled by these two planets are also stressed, and it is likely that there will be loss in these areas. Strong emotions, such as jealousy, can cause romantic and/or marital problems, including separation. People may feel you are inconsiderate. If you are not careful, your passions could result in serious difficulties related to love, money, sexuality, and the houses ruled by Venus and Pluto. This is a difficult cycle. There is danger of infection. Problems that arise tend to be repetitious and things that happen tend to manifest more than once.

PROGRESSED VENUS TRINE PLUTO

This is a terrific aspect for improving your social circumstances. People that come into your life at this time will be intense and helpful. They will produce positive feelings within you, encourage a constructive attitude, and bring benefits. You will have insights into how to improve your romantic life and your finances. There will probably be a new opportunity involving some kind of joint financial commitment. This is a powerful and passionate period, often leading to an engagement, a live-in relationship, or a marriage.

PROGRESSED VENUS OPPOSITION PLUTO

One of the key problems with this aspect is people seem to be trying to dominate you — or is it the other way around? It is a period when people try to get you to have secret dealings involving money, contracts, agreements, and perhaps romance. Be careful. Be wise. That which is hidden (or we prefer to be hidden) is often revealed during hard aspects connected to Pluto. Family and marital troubles often cause you to pull your attention away from financial matters, which can cause serious loss. Troubles or disagreements arise regarding joint assets. This is a cycle in which people try to manipulate you using love or money — or perhaps it is the other way around.

PROGRESSED VENUS INCONJUNCT PLUTO

This aspect produces stress and emotionality in personal relationships. Feelings of guilt arise related to sex, money, or a drive for ego-power and satisfaction. These feelings are quite subtle, but they will be felt at a semi-conscious level. The stress that occurs causes you to fluctuate between passion and indifference. The emotional loss of someone close to you often puts a strain on your health. Love and money seem to be incompatible in your life at this time.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN ASPECT TO NATAL VENUS

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE OR SEMI-SEXTILE (30°) NATAL VENUS

These positive aspects produce pleasant feelings, happier relationships, and greater satisfaction in your family and social life. They bring new friends and acquaintances, which improves your life emotionally. There will be romantic satisfaction and financial gain. Benefits arise from the houses ruled by Venus and the house where Venus is found in the natal chart.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEMI-SQUARE (45°) NATAL VENUS

This aspect causes trouble socially, professionally, and in your home life, all of which negatively affect your financial situation. Social activities, entertainment, amusements, and vacations will tend to be a source of apprehension or will prove to be disappointing. There is likely to be disappointment and sadness related to friends and the house where the natal Venus is found.

PROGRESSED MARS IN ASPECT TO MERCURY

PROGRESSED MARS PARALLEL MERCURY

A progressed parallel from Mars lasts at least two full years. Any other aspect involving the progressed Mars will be within thirty minutes of orb for at least a year on either side of the partile. Thus progressed Mars aspects are backdrops that influence any other progression or major transit manifesting during that cycle. Study the natal Mars by house, rulership, sign, and aspects. This will give you a clearer understanding of its progressed influence.

Mars over Mercury emphasizes your mental talents. It makes you more ambitious and innovative. However, like any Mars aspect, it can also make you impulsive and restless. You are easily agitated and provoked during this cycle, especially if the progressed Moon forms a hard aspect to the natal Mercury. The mind becomes quick and grasps ideas and concepts easily, but it just as easily provokes and agitates other people. Be careful of correspondence and try to avoid signing legal documents. It is an unfavorable time for dealing with teachers and agents and for traveling.

When there is a hard aspect involving Mars, there can always be sexual problems — physically or emotionally. Arguments and disputes can manifest with brothers, sisters, or neighbors. It is a period in which mechanical equipment breaks down, especially cars. Guard against over-stimulation, which can lead to nervous exhaustion. People are generally more active, exercise more, or take up a sport. Be careful of injuries to the neck.

PROGRESSED MARS CONJUNCT MERCURY

This conjunction causes the mind to be harsh, inflexible, and have a somewhat matter-of-fact attitude. You will be overly impulsive. Thus you will act recklessly and unwisely, and this can bring problems with siblings, co-workers, or neighbors. At the same time, this aspect makes you active, enterprising, and astute. It also makes you inclined to go to extremes, which can cause serious problems. Difficulties that arise in your life during this aspect will most likely be due to intense and deep-seated passions.

Be prepared to protect yourself against other people's harmful actions, including attempts at deception. Guard your tongue, and do not express your bitterness by being sarcastic. This is an unfavorable time to travel, especially by automobile. Accidents happen and mechanical equipment tends to breakdown. Physical problems that can arise include cramps, sore muscles, and stiffness in the neck, which can lead to headaches.

PROGRESSED MARS SEXTILE MERCURY

This sextile makes the mind active, sharp, and keen. It offers opportunities for advancement through study, reading, writing, and travel. It is a beneficial time for dealing with brethren, neighbors, agents, teachers, and writers. It is a period of intense activity. You will have keen insights and know what to say and do to benefit from opportunities that present themselves to you. Thus it should be a period of great success.

PROGRESSED MARS SQUARE MERCURY

This can be an extremely destructive period. It is not a good time for making changes or beginning new relationships, especially in the business world. Be careful of what you say, and even more careful of what you sign. Anything you say or sign can get you into far greater trouble under this aspect than you could imagine. You tend to be much too rash and impulsive, which can cause quarrels and accidents. Actions taken without forethought can bring problems involving the police or other authorities.

Your mind will malfunction, causing you to make serious errors and miscalculations. Problems often arise because you take on challenges that are beyond your abilities. Be careful of giving the impression that you are overly independent. It will cause people to think you are willful. You will need to control your tongue, or severe disputes will arise. You will be overly reactive. People around you will feel that you are too blunt, cruel, or cutting in your speech. If you do not soften your manner of communication, you will find that relationships end, and the loss will be yours.

Two big problems can arise at this time — attempts at deceit and a feeling you are being imposed upon by others. Both can be a source of major difficulties. Health problems often manifest as fevers, cuts, bruises, muscle strain, and burn out. This can be avoided or at least softened by getting more sleep, slowing down, and relaxing more. Accidents that occur under this aspect affect the head, neck, and face. Beware of chemicals.

PROGRESSED MARS TRINE MERCURY

This is a positive cycle. You want to express yourself through writing, speaking, or sports. The mind is sharp but harmonious, so it is a good time for resolving problems. It is also an excellent time for beginning new projects or relationships. They will be meaningful, enjoyable, and successful. This aspect makes you more energetic and industrious, with a strong urge to study and gain knowledge through new experiences. You will discover that you can manifest things into your life that were once only thoughts or ideas.

It is an excellent time for seeking the attainment of your goals or for creating new ones. Success will come through being expressive and resourceful. You should be able to accomplish anything you put your mind to, especially projects that involve reading, writing, problem solving, traveling, or the house areas ruled by these two planets.

The trine gives physical protection. All other aspects being equal, your physical and mental stamina should improve. Your health and vitality should be at an all time high, unless there are debilitating aspects manifesting at the same time. People often take a keen interest in cars or mechanical devices when Mars is active. If someone is in the police department, fire department, or military, this will be a period of promotion or honor.

PROGRESSED MARS OPPOSITION MERCURY

This aspect can bring real problems. People seem to be opposed to you and your goals. Some will even seek to deceive you. Do not allow yourself to be rushed or coerced into doing things with which you are uncomfortable. Avoid confrontations, if at all possible. This is especially important when dealing with co-workers, brothers and sisters, neighbors, and aggressive people. You also need to watch out for problems stemming from or through your relatives.

A progressed opposition between Mercury and Mars produces a personality prone to argumentation and disagreements. You tend to feel you have been dealt with unfairly, which may or may not be true. This causes conflicts to manifest. It is easy to have serious misunderstandings and to get into intense quarrels during this aspect. This often leads to the loss of a friendship or lover. One of the difficulties of this aspect is your ego is set on assessing blame and finding fault. It is overly critical of how people do things, but it often overlooks or ignores unappealing aspects of its own behavior. It may even take an opposing point of view just for the sake of argument.

When Mars opposes Mercury, your ego (symbolized by Mars) will have an abnormal identification with your ideas (Mercury). Thus you can become disrespectful and offend people who differ in their way of thinking or hold an opinion contrary to yours. If this affrontive quality in your personality is not controlled, you will find yourself very unpopular. You can also lose friends, your spouse, or your job. This opposition makes the mind active, swift, and sharp. There is a restlessness and impatience with people who are not thinking, speaking, or taking action as rapidly as you are. There is also a tendency to use profanity, which will seriously offend people. Speak less. Speak softer. Speak more gently. Speak more slowly.

Relationships will be tested under this aspect, as will your affections, and all of this will cause the mind to worry. It is a bad time for starting new projects and traveling, whether for business or pleasure. Projects and relationships started at this time will not be worth the problems encountered. Another difficulty associated with this cycle is the possibility of scandal or disgrace. You can also be easily forced into litigation under this aspect. It is critical that you remain above reproach in all your actions and dealings. Protect your reputation and beware of fraud.

You also need to guard against accidents and injuries that can occur in areas of your body or houses ruled by Mercury. Keep all equipment in good working order, thus avoiding potential problems or accidents. Mars indicates a danger of loss through fire. Be careful of sharp objects, machinery, and open flames. If accidents do occur, they will most likely affect the hands, face, head, or neck. Beware of combative situations that can arise in the houses ruled by Mercury and Mars and in the natal house where Mercury is found.

PROGRESSED MARS INCONJUNCT MERCURY

This aspect tends to make you exhaust your mind and nervous system through stress and strain. You will certainly be busy, but perhaps the reason you are so active is because you are running away or hiding from some sort of guilt. Look closely at the houses ruled by Mercury for clues.
